A composite image for a company profile. The top half shows a multi-story building under construction with several yellow tower cranes against a clear sky. A green and black logo for "DG CS" is overlaid on the left. To the right, the word "COMPANY PROFILE" is written in white on a dark green rectangular background. The bottom half features a diagonal banner with a white background and a green border. On the white part, the company name "DARSHA" is written in large green letters, with "Global Construction Services Ltd" in smaller black letters below it. To the left of the banner, there's a small image of two construction workers wearing blue hard hats and light blue shirts, looking at a set of architectural blueprints spread out on a surface. The overall theme is professional construction services.
